

Clay sculpture

We have been learning all about how the Ancient Egyptians used canopic jars in the mummification process. They were used to hold and protect the organs of the dead ready for the after-life!

We learnt how to create a coil pot using clay and how to use different joining techniques to ensure our pots and lids wouldn't collapse.

Keep updated to see the finished products!

