

Understanding the World – Past and Present

15.01.24

Today we have been identifying some similarities and differences between transport now and in the past. We have introduced the terms past and present and have sorted photographs of cars buses, planes, boats, trains and bikes.