

The USA

In our Geography topic, we've been learning about the United States of America. During this topic, we've been looking in detail at the western USA and comparing the states with Leicestershire. In this lesson, we looked closely at a map of the USA whilst identifying the individual states. We then completed a research project on an individual state as homework!

