

In preparation for our next History topic, we enjoyed a fantastic VR session all about the Romans. The children loved being immersed in 360° images of this ancient civilisation and are excited to learn more.

