

Art- sketching and watercolour painting

Today in art we discussed what the purpose of a sketchbook was and why artists use them. We looked at some famous artist's sketchbooks for inspiration, particularly Kathryn Larsen who is famous for her architectural sketches. We then sketched our school in biro and added colour with watercolour paints to recreate her style!

