

Music- Ukulele

The children in Cedar Class have got straight back into the swing of their ukulele lessons after Christmas! The enthusiasm and engagement of the children is fantastic; many children even got their own ukuleles bought for them at Christmas! It was lovely to see them excited to play their instruments and continue their learning.

