Are you an inspirational leader ready to take on a new challenge?

Following the forthcoming retirement of our much-respected Headteacher, we are seeking an exceptional leader to guide our school into its next chapter. We are looking for someone who will build on our strong foundations while bringing fresh vision, ambition and energy to drive continued improvement. We are seeking an inspirational role model for staff and children alike, passionate about providing the highest quality education and forward-thinking in shaping the future of our school community.

We are looking for a Headteacher who is:

- Inspirational – able to motivate, empower and bring out the best in others
- Passionate – committed to nurturing every child and championing high-quality teaching and learning
- Forward-thinking – ready to innovate, evolve and lead the school with clarity and purpose

We warmly welcome and encourage visits to the school before applying. To arrange a visit, please contact Mrs Alex Gamble (Business Manager)
