

Travelling Toybox

Year 2 enjoyed learning about toys that were made in the past, how they were played with and how they are different to the toys we have today. We had lots of fun exploring the toys and could have easily spent another hour playing with them! However, we agreed that we are very lucky to have the toys we have today!

