

WWII Library Session

Oak Class were visited by the local library services this week. They were lucky enough to handle replicas of various WWII objects whilst learning how the war affected our local area.