

Character Muscle Morning

Ash class joined their year groups to participate in our whole-school character building morning. Activities included a blind fold assault course, guess the mystery sound, stick towers and positive affirmations.

